

UNM Department of Anthropology

Graduate Student Travel Allocation Grant Application

The Department provides travel grants annually to graduate students for travel to professional meetings or conferences. Criteria for these awards include: seniority (closeness to completion of dissertation, timely progress, and strength of application). Students who have not received previous travel awards may be favorably considered. Students are limited to three (3) departmental travel grants during time at UNM starting with the 2007-2008 academic year. Please see the department Graduate Student Funding Guide on the department website for more information.

Date of Request _____ Dates of Travel _____

Name _____ Banner ID _____

Contact Information (email and phone) _____

Subfield _____ Years in Program _____

Name/Date/Location of Conference or Meeting _____

Indicate the nature of your participation (organizing and/or chairing a session; presenting a paper; poster session; invited; volunteered; if other please explain) _____

Title of poster or presentation (if applicable) _____

Paper/Presentation Accepted? Yes _____ No _____ Pending _____

Estimate of total travel expense _____

Requested Amount ($300 limit) _____

Have you received travel funds from the department before? If so, please give the amount, what it was used for, and when. _____

Attach abstract and brief statement regarding the importance of conference professional development to this application and email completed application to Matt Tuttle (mattt@unm.edu) and your subfield Graduate Advisor.