

UNM Department of Anthropology

GA/TA/PTI Application

The Department provides Graduate Assistantships (GAs) and Teaching Assistantships (TAs) annually to graduate students and may have Part-Time Instructor (PTI) positions available as well. Please note that TA and PTI assignments require teaching and grading classes and may be dependent on minimum enrollment thresholds. GA assignments require assisting an instructor or professor of a class. Only students currently enrolled in the graduate program are eligible.

Please attach a current CV to this application, and email completed application to the Staff Graduate Advisor (anthgrad@unm.edu) and your subfield Graduate Advisor (indicated in most recent graduate handbook).
