

UNM Department of Anthropology

Graduate Student Travel Allocation Grant Application

The Department provides travel grants to graduate students for travel to professional meetings or conferences. Criteria for these awards include: closeness to completion of dissertation, timely progress, and strength of application. Students are limited to three (3) departmental travel grants during time at UNM. Please see the department Graduate Student Funding Guide on the department website for more information.

Date of Request

Dates of Travel

Name

Banner ID

Contact Information (email and phone)

Subfield

Years in Program

Anticipated Graduation Date

Name/Date/Location of Conference or Meeting

Indicate the nature of your participation (organizing and/or chairing a session; presenting a paper; poster session; invited; volunteered; if other please explain)

Title of poster or presentation (if applicable)

Paper/Presentation Accepted?    Yes                      No                      Pending

Estimate of total travel expense

Requested Amount

Have you received travel funds from the department before? If so, please give the amount, what it was used for, and when

Attach abstract and brief statement regarding the importance of conference professional development to this application and email completed application to the Anthropology Graduate Advisor (anthgrad@unm.edu) and your subfield Graduate Advisor.