

The “Bad Girls” of NM History

NM Penitentiary photos

Join Robert J. Tórréz, former State Historian and New Mexico writer and researcher, for a look at the notorious and unknown women who appear in criminal records in the Spanish, Mexican and Territorial archives of New Mexico. He'll look at several cases and the judicial process surrounding them, including the case of a mother and daughter who were hanged for murder in 1779, and Las Vegas' infamous Paula Angel.
