The Journey & Pathways: Oral Histories of Contemporary Pueblo Women in Service, Leadership & the Arts project highlights the life experiences of 20 Pueblo women who have made significant contributions to their communities and fields. This project focused on a new generation of Pueblo women and their unique journeys, challenges, and successes. Jonna C. Paden (Acoma Pueblo), Archivist at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center and President of the American Indian Library Association, will discuss her role in the project from researcher to transcriber and interviewee.
