

Campbell Darby

Curriculum Vitae

12/1/2022

3752 Station Point Court, 29466, (843) 813-8517

campbelldarbysc@gmail.com

1. Education

COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON, Charleston, SC

B. A. Anthropology, Minor: History, May 2020

- Extensive coursework in: Cultural Anthropology, Indigenous Studies, Archaeology and Biological Anthropology.
- Studied abroad in the Dominican Republic and Ireland

Biological Anthropology Lab 2019

- Assisted in setting up an exhibit on human evolution and acted as a docent when opened for viewing by the general public.

Santiago de los Caballeros, D.R., Jan–May 2018

- Taught an ESL class to students at the Pontifica Universidad Catolica Madre Maestra and received a certificate for completion of that instruction period.
- Acted as translator for one-on-one interviews with residents of La Loteria Barrio in Santiago to collect field work about barrio culture and quality of life issues.

2. Professional

- Presented at the RARN (Russian American Research Nexus) on Religious Syncretism.
- Conducted field work in Q'eqchi Mayan communities in Guatemala between May 2021 and march 2022.
- Initiated community development project in the Mayan Village of Santa Lucia Lachua.
- Presented said field work at RARN conference.

3. Publications

- Beliefs Involving Parental Thoughts, Desires, and Actions and their Effects on Offspring among the Q'eqchi Maya, Hopi, and Achuar (Shiwiar)
- To be published in the Russian Academic Journal of Science

4. Research Experience

- Conducted fieldwork in Mayan communities of Alta Verapaz
- Worked in an archaeology lab in Guatemala City, Guatemala

5. Languages

- English
- Spanish

6. Teaching Experience

- Santiago de los Caballeros, D.R., Jan–May 2018
- Taught an ESL class to students at the Pontifica Universidad Catolica Madre Maestra and received a certificate for completion of that instruction period.