

UNM Department of Anthropology

John Martin “Jack” Campbell Award for Undergraduate Student Research

This award was established in honor of Dr. John Martin “Jack” Campbell, former Chair of the Department of Anthropology and former Director of the Maxwell Museum. This $250 award is given to two upper division undergraduate students to pay for travel to professional meetings or to conduct field or other research. The award can be used to defray the costs of travel and lodging at meetings, or travel or other expenses related to research projects.

Name _____ Banner ID _____

Address _____

Phone Number _____ Email _____

Major Concentration _____ Year at UNM _____

Research Project or Professional Meeting Title _____

Purpose and Justification of Funds Requested

In addition to this application, you must provide the following to be considered for this award:

- 1) Letter of Interest. List your area of concentration and briefly describe your research. If you plan to use the fellowship to attend a professional meeting, provide the location and dates of the meeting and the proposed title and format (podium or poster) of your presentation.
- 2) Letter of Support from a faculty member who is familiar with your research (may be submitted with application or sent separately by the faculty member)
- 3) Unofficial Transcripts (which can be printed through LoboWeb)
- 4) Preliminary budget (include estimated cost per item).

Submit your application materials (compiled into a single pdf with your last name as part of the file name) electronically to the Department at anthro@unm.edu by the Monday before Fall Break. Include “Campbell Award Application” in the email subject line.
